

POMS CHALLENGE INDIA'S HOME INVINCIBILITY

Fresh after historic triumph Down Under & with return of Captain Kohli, India eye WTC final spot against Root & Co

PTI ■ CHENNAI

A dream took flight during an unforgettable Australian summer and a confident India will aim to soar higher with the return of Virat Kohli against Joe Root's England during a four-Test series starting from Friday with both sides bidding to qualify for the World Test Championship final. International cricket returns to India after a year-long Covid-19 break and it couldn't have been bigger than a series against a world-class side which is led by a modern day great in Joe Root.

Root would be playing his 100th Test match and the team also features the most respected new ball attack in contemporary cricket besides having the game's best all-format all-rounder. And in the middle of all this will be the awe-inspiring presence of Kohli, fresh from a paternity break, leading a side which will have bounce on the first day and start helping the spinners from the third day.

But in England, they face a team that in the last 15 years, is the only one to have won a Test series (2012) in the sub-continent.

In Root they have a player, who knows a thing or two about how to tackle spinners on sub-continental turners as he showed during the just-concluded Sri Lanka series.

James Anderson, the world's highest wicket-taking seam bowler, will again test Rohit Sharma's patience and Shubman Gill's technique using the pronounced seam of the red SG Test while preparing a tough set of questions in the corridor of uncertainty for the Indian captain.

Jofra Archer would like to use the bouncer sparingly and Ben Stokes wouldn't mind if the old ball reverses a bit.

"Australia series is past now. We have to respect the England side and take one match at a time," said India's vice-captain Ajinkya Rahane, back in his familiar role but perhaps with a lot more responsibility after emerging as a leader during the Australia series.

India will be wanting to guard themselves against the complacency that can always creep in after a triumph like Australia.

So, after batting on firm, even bouncy Australian tracks, it's time for them to adjust to the red soil traditional Chennai pitch which will have bounce on the first day and start helping the spinners from the third day.

One might find Cheteshwar Pujara shedding his combative "take body blows" style to a slightly more attacking one on a track where the ball won't be consistently flying above the waist level.

The Indian batsmen are likely to enjoy an upper-hand against the England slow bowlers as save Moeen Ali, the other two — off-spinner Dom Bess and left-arm spinner Jack Leach — haven't had the experience of bowling against a formidable Indian batting line-up.

"As a whole bowling group, it is important that we all work together. It is important that collectively we all play our parts," England skipper Joe Root said on the eve of the match.

Against the old ball, one might see India unleashing Rishabh Pant, who on his day can murder any bowling line-up.

Speaking of his bowlers, Root said that all three spinners are fit and available for selection.

"I think it's great that all three are fit and available for selection. We look at partnerships and look at how bowling group performs in these conditions and not put pressure on individuals to try and win games on their own."

"That's going to be the main mentality for this series," the England skipper said. However, it is the bowling combination that will be key for India as they aim to win at least two Test matches or more during the series in order to clinch a face-off against New Zealand in the WTC final at the Lord's.

Jasprit Bumrah will also be making a different kind of debut — his first Test at home since his debut against South Africa in 2018.

Ishant Sharma, in his last Test appearance nearly a year back claimed a five wicket haul at the Basin Reserve but hasn't played a red ball game ever since due to injury and Covid-19 induced break.

But Mohammed Siraj's gutsy performance Down Under can't be forgotten in a hurry and it will be one of the toughest calls for Kohli and coach Ravi Shastri in recent times when they decide between Siraj and Ishant.

The logic in favour of Ishant is that he was out due to injury and now gets his rightful place back as the man who is just three short of 100 Test matches.

But then a form player always has an advantage and Siraj, over the years in first-class cricket, has toiled hard on unresponsive wickets.

India are likely to play three spinners and Axar Patel, who has always been dubbed as "poor man's Ravindra Jadeja", is in contention to get his maiden Test cap.

Ravichandran Ashwin picks himself while Kuldeep Yadav, being a wrist spinner, is an attacking option that skipper Kohli would fancy.

Liverpool lose again at home

AFP ■ LIVERPOOL

Liverpool's Premier League little defence suffered a damaging blow as Brighton earned a shock 1-0 win at Anfield, while Manchester City moved three points clear at the top with a 2-0 victory against Burnley on Wednesday.

Jürgen Klopp's side paid the price for a sloppy display as Steven Alzate's second half strike gave struggling Brighton a memorable success at the expense of the injury-hit champions.

Brighton's first away league win against Liverpool since 1982 was secured in the 56th minute when Dan Burn headed a cross towards Alzate and the Colombia midfielder flicked his shot inside the far post.

Liverpool are languishing in fourth place and trail Manchester City by seven points, with the leaders holding a game in hand.

CITY ON TOP
Pep Guardiola's side had watched Manchester United draw level on points with them on Tuesday after their bitter rivals crushed Southampton 9-0.

But City underlined their determination to hold onto top spot with a composed, mature display at Turf Moor.

Gabriel Jesus opened the scoring after a mistake from Burnley keeper Nick Pope and Raheem Sterling grabbed the second before half-time.

Elsewhere, Leicester beat struggling Fulham 2-0 to improve their superb away league record.

Despite the absence of injured leading scorer Jamie Vardy, Kelechi Iheanacho opened the scoring for Brendan Rodgers' men and James Justin doubled their lead on the stroke of half-time.

Jesse Lingard scored twice on his West Ham debut to clinch a 3-1 victory at Aston Villa. While Dominic Calvert-Lewin and Gyfi Sigurdsson scored in Everton's 2-1 victory at Leeds.

'Ajinkya fulfilled his responsibility with flying colours'

PTI ■ CHENNAI

India captain Virat Kohli on Thursday said his relationship with Ajinkya Rahane is based on trust and hailed his deputy for fulfilling his responsibility with "flying colours" in Australia.

Only days after Kohli had gone on a paternity leave following the disastrous first Test in Adelaide, Rahane led an injury-ravaged Indian team to a 2-1 series victory. On Wednesday, Rahane had said he was "happy to take the back seat".

A day later, it was Kohli's turn to speak on their equation. "Not just jinks and me, the camaraderie of the whole team is based on trust and all of us are working towards only one goal and that is to see India win."

"I would like to mention, he fulfilled his responsibility in Australia with flying colours, it was amazing to see him lead the team towards victory, which has always been our goal," Kohli said.

Kohli believes that his bonding with Rahane off the field also helps in their on-field relationship.

"Me and jinks, we have always enjoyed batting with each other. It's quite evident on the field that we share mutual respect. There is bonding off the field also. We do chat a lot, stay in touch and it's a relation based on trust."
